Hello

We thought you might like this little booklet that's filled with stuff to do.

When someone you know is ill, you might feel bad about doing your own thing or having a bit of fun.

Hey Jake, there's a great game inside, want to play?

Yep, let's go Izzy. This booklet has loads of stuff to keep us busy!

But it's OK to carry on with normal things, and there are even some games and puzzles in here that you could do together.

If you're hanging around in waiting rooms or visiting someone in hospital, you could take this along to fill your time.

P.S. You can find all the puzzle answers on page 22... no peeking now!

Help this alien fill in the planet so that every row, column and 2 x 2 square has the numbers 1-4.

SILLY SENTENCE

Create some funny, future-predicting sentences that may come true (but most probably won't)!

How to play

- Close your eyes and place your finger on one of the numbers on the NUMBER PAD on the right.
- Read out the words from BOX A that are next to the number that you selected.
- Now pick numbers in the same way for BOX B, BOX C and BOX D so you end up with a whole sentence.

Here's an example: My teacher shall try and kiss a disco-dancing dinosaur on Friday at 2pm.

BOX A

1 I am going to

2 My best friend will

3 My brother/sister won't ever

4 Mum/Dad will

5 My teacher shall

6 A talking turtle will

BOX B

1 Fall in love with

2 accidentally turn into

3 eat

4 pretend to be

5 try and kiss

6 become allergic to

Write down the funniest one here:

Close your eyes and point to a number!

NUMBER PAD

BOX C

- 1 the next person they/I see
- 2 some old Cheese
- 3 a disco-dancing dinosaur
- 4 a not very handsome prince
- 5 peas and gravy
- 6 a person with a moustache

BOX D

- 1 for exactly 7 years
- 2 at the local butcher's
- 3 right now
- 4 until they get a bit bored
- 5 on Friday at 2pm
- 6 forever and a bit more

FRIDAY
7th MARCH

Ask someone else to pick a number for each box, too, and see what silliness they come up with!

SO TELL ME...

Imagine you're a chat show host and your special guest is a friend or someone in your family. Interview them and see if you find out something you never knew.

You could have a go at answering the questions, too!

HERE ARE SOME IDEAS FOR QUESTIONS:

What was your favourite toy when you were little?

What's your funniest memory?

What job have you always wanted to do?

What super power would you love to have?

What's your favourite smell in the whole world?

THINK TANK

Can you think of a word beginning with these letters for each of the categories... in just five minutes?

	S	B	E	A
Something you eat			eggs
A boy's name
Something that makes you laugh
An animal
A TV programme
A famous person

Think of some more categories and letters and play again with pals.

* DESERT ISLAND DREAMS *

Imagine you're stuck on a desert island. What would you take?

* You're allowed to take just one thing from each of these categories. Fill in the bubbles, then ask your family what they'd take.

Or, if you feel like you need a good cry, then a weepy film might be in order.

Movie munchies

- Five mice
- A thirsty cat
- Eight apples
- A pink cupcake
- A hungry hedgehog

GAME ON

Here are some games you could play with a relative or friend if you're visiting them in hospital or they're taking it easy at home.

Squashed bananas!

Tell your relative or friend that they have to answer 'Squashed bananas' to any questions they're asked! Take it in turns to ask the questions.

Q: What are you wearing on your feet?

A: Squashed bananas!

Q: What would you like for your birthday?

A: Squashed bananas!

What's your favourite pizza flavour?

Squashed bananas!

The first one to laugh is out!

Who am I?

One player thinks of a famous person and the other player has to try and guess who it is by asking 20 questions which must be answered 'Yes' or 'No'.

Are you a superhero?

Have you had a song in the charts?

Have you got brown hair?

Are you a man?

Are you a cartoon character?

Are you a sports person?

Shopping lists

Take it in turns with someone to think of things you'd buy at the shops that begin with the letter A, then B, then C and so on, repeating the items from the beginning each time you add a new one.

Here's how to play:

I went to the shops
and I bought an apple.

I went to the shops and I bought an apple and a book...

I went to the shops and I bought an apple and a book and a carrot...

Carry on until someone forgets one of the items or can't think of a new one.

Doodle It

Draw a doodle below and ask someone to turn it into a picture. Here's one Izzy did!

There are oodles of doodle ideas!

SCRIBBLE PAD

Time for some more doodling!

Alpha-sketch

Take it in turns with someone to draw a picture beginning with each letter of the alphabet. Try and link the pictures whenever you can! We've started you off...

Designer bed

Finish off decorating this colourful patchwork quilt.

Hip to be square

Write your name or make pictures by colouring in squares on the grid.

DEAR DIARY

Write down what's going on in your life...

Keeping a diary can be a helpful way to write about things that have been happening and how you feel about them. Why not have a go here and then start a diary in a notebook?

Today's date:

Today I feel...

What's bothering me at the moment is...

A funny thing happened today...

Something else that happened today...
